

Median Salary by Occupation and State

This heatmap is a very quick and easily navigable way to visualize salary data. The roles are arranged with the highest median salary on the left and descending. The states are alphabetical so it is easy to quickly find a given location, and the states with low or high values stand out due to the horizontal tones. A single color scale was used to aid the colorblind and avoid any confusion.